We think, that, in the Journal of yesterday, we did injustice to the motives of the Farmers' Mutual Insurance Company in giving notice to the Agricultural Association that they would not hold themselves liable, during the continuance of troops on the Fair Grounds, for any damage to the buildings, the risk being made more hazardous.

When the Fair Grounds were occupied by the State Guard upwards of a year ago, the weather was warm, no fire was used upon the grounds except from the three cooking stoves remote from the buildings, and there was an express stipulation that the fire in the stoves should be extinguished at sunset. Now the weather, especially at night, is cold, and fire is kept up all around the buildings, and at a great distance from them. So at least we are told.

We are satisfied that no disloyal feeling prompted the late notice of the Insurance Company to the Agricultural Association.

How IT HAPPENED THAT THE SECESSIONISTS DID NOT TAKE LOUISVILLE.—The fact that General Buckner did not take the city of Louisville instead of staying at Green River, as we have before stated, is due to the loyalty, courage, and patriotism of the citizens of this city. The Commercial says the secessionists had laid their plans to appear suddenly in Louisville with a powerful force. They had provided for transportation of thousands of men, with artillery, cavalry, and camp equipage, on board. They had secured the services of the telegraph operators, one of whom forwarded to Louisville a dispatch explaining the detention of trains on the road, and were moving east at a grand rate. The citizens, however, in cooperation with them, and Louisville, with perhaps the exception of a few secessionists, was unsuspecting and unguarded.

But at a station just beyond Green River, there was a young man in the Union uniform, who was a warm friend of the Union, and who, comprehending the meaning of the monster train, when it came up, seized a crow-bar used for taking up rails to make repairs, and while the locomotive was passing, he threw the bar across the rails, and in a deep, earnest cry, wrenched the spikes from four rails. The train came along at good speed, the rails spread, the locomotive plunged into the ground, the crash resounded on top of it, and it was twenty-four hours before the train could get about. In the meantime Louisville was saved. The hero of the action had not had time to get out of the cut before the crash came, and was taken, but in the confusion and excitement got away, and is safe. These facts are related by the Louisville Herald, which in Nashville when the secession army advanced, was detained there several days subsequently, heard the circumstances narrated there, and was told of them afterwards by Gen. Buckner and other officers of the Confederate army.

THE THIRTY-THIRD ILLINOIS REGIMENT.—General Robert Anderson received this Regiment at its headquarters at the Louisville Hotel Sunday. Colonel Colburn, late Judge Colburn, the commander of the Regiment, made an eloquent response to the reception address of General Anderson, after which the Regiment quartered at the Louisville Hotel. The officers of this Regiment are: Colonel Colburn, late Judge Colburn, the commander of the Regiment, made an eloquent response to the reception address of General Anderson, after which the Regiment quartered at the Louisville Hotel.

RETURNED.—In addition to the companies of Home Guard which returned from service on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad on Saturday night, the East Louisville Home Guards, the Louisville Home Guards, and a detachment of the Southern Home Guards, returned to the city. Capt. Watkins' company, which rendered excellent service, also returned from the Lebanon Junction yesterday.

ZOLICOFFER MARCHING ON CAMP ROBINSON.—We have good authority for making the statement that the rebel Gen. Zolicoffer, has been repulsed by way of Camp Robinson, and that he is already advancing upon Camp Dick Robinson with the view of giving the Federal troops battle there. On Sunday evening he was accompanied within thirty or forty miles of Camp Robinson.

ADMITTED TO BATTLE.—The case of James B. Clay, who is charged with aiding the Southern rebellion, came up before Judge Catron, of the U. S. Court yesterday morning on a writ of habeas corpus, and the accused was admitted to bail in the sum of $100,000, to appear at the January term of the Court. Messrs. H. H. Clay and Thos. P. Jacob appeared as bail.

IT WAS stated yesterday that Judge Vestres, of Hardin county, had been arrested on the charge of aiding the Southern rebellion. The report was erroneous in the matter of the arrest. He visited Louisville voluntarily upon learning that the local authorities had ordered his arrest, and returned here that he was a loyal citizen, and returned home.

ARRESTED AND RELEASED.—Judge F. A. Boyd, of the Campbell county (Ky.) Court, was arrested near Cincinnati on Saturday, charged with aiding rebellion. He was taken to the New York Herald, but was released after testimony against him to warrant his detention.

CYNTHIANA.—The Frankfort Commonwealth says this pestilential little nest of treason has been purified by the presence of a regiment of United States soldiers. They had as good an effect upon the moral atmosphere as the chlorine of lime would have in General Prine's case.

THE KENTUCKY CENTRAL RAILROAD IS NOW under the complete control of the government, and is kept busy in transporting military supplies. The regular transportation of passengers, however, will not be interfered with, and trains will run regularly for the future.

CHARGE OF HEADQUARTERS.—Gen. Anderson removed his headquarters yesterday from the Louisville Hotel to the building prepared for his reception on Fourth street, between Green and Walnut.

RIVER AND STEAMBOAT MATTERS

The river commenced rising rapidly at this time on Sunday night, and last evening there was six feet of water in the canal. The water is clear and pleasant. The Superior brought down a large number of army wagons on Sunday night, which were sent out to the Nashville depot, for transportation to Gen. Sherman's headquarters on the Louisville and Nashville railroad.

The W. L. Macey received a quantity of four yesterday for Pittsburgh, and will leave for that port this afternoon. The splendid mail steamer Major Anderson is the mail boat for Cincinnati at noon to-day. The Eugene and Commercial left for Henderson last evening, both having fair trips. The new steamer Tris, Capt. Dickinson, will leave for Carrollton at the usual hour to-day.

MR. MASON'S RESIGNATION.—The Marion Rides last night voted to go into the State service for the war in Kentucky, and have opened a recruiting office at their army, on Jefferson street, Louisville. The number of recruits is said to be considerable. It has been stated at four thousand, but it is no doubt an exaggeration. A Mississippi regiment is said to be among the occupants of the State.

The companies and squads sent out from Helm's command carry things with a high hand wherever they go. They have got the names of all the Union men in the counties of that region, and are seizing guns, ammunition, horses, cattle, and whatever else they can find, and arresting the owners to be held as prisoners or prisoners of war, unless they take an oath of allegiance to the Confederate States.

UNIVERSITY CAMPS.—At a meeting of the Independent Union held last evening, the following resolutions were adopted: Resolved, That the University of Kentucky be closed, and the students be expelled, for their participation in the rebellion.
